A close-up photograph of a woven basket. The basket is made of light-colored, possibly bamboo or reed, strips woven in a tight, regular pattern. A dark, braided cord, likely made of leather or a similar material, is draped across the basket. In the center, a small, oval-shaped leather label is attached to the cord. The label has a slightly textured surface and contains the following text: "FAGEN", "TROOP COLL.", "ZACARIAS 1925", "X", and "GABRIEL LICH". The lighting is even, highlighting the texture of the weaving and the cord.

ZACARIAS 1925 puts a contemporary thrust
in the traditional craft of hand-weaving.
Pieces are made in the family workshop that was founded by Creative Director Rita Nazareno's grandmother in 1925.
